

We named our class after the large willow nearby our base. Like the tree we are:
Unique and individual abut constantly growing together supporting and strengthening each other.
Flexible and adaptable always striving towards our full potential.
Thriving through nurture resilient throughout all seasons/challenges and overcoming difficulties.
These qualities help us to learn. We take pride in our developing independence which prepares us for further education, work and adult life

